

Requirements and Deadlines for Progression in and Completion of the Program

(Accreditation Standard A3.15b)

To earn the Master of Science-Medicine (MSM) degree from Trevecca Nazarene University, PA students must accomplish all of the following:

- Successfully complete all 142 hours of the professional curriculum earning a C average or better.
- Successfully complete the didactic and clinical summative evaluation processes.
- Receive a satisfactory evaluation from the Promotions, Retention, and Disciplinary Committee that provides a professional assessment of overall suitability to practice as a physician assistant.